THE FOLLOWING EVENTS ARE OPEN TO ALL MEMBERS OF THE CIVIL/PUBLIC SERVICE

Wednesday 9 June - 1:00- 14:30

Out in the World: A discussion on Ireland's LGBTQ+ Diaspora

D/FA are hosting an event to coincide with the launch of the new EPIC museum exhibition on Ireland's LGBTQ+ Diaspora. Curator Dr Maurice Casey will discuss some of the fascinating histories he discovered while researching the exhibition. From stories about the Irish link to the 1969 Stonewall riots, to a former Donegal nun who challenged oppression in Pinochet's Chile, to an Anglo-Irish doctor who became a trans healthcare pioneer nearly 70 years ago. The exhibition covers stories of exile, love, and activism from across two centuries of Irish LGBTQ+ emigration.

Live Out Loud: Celebrating LGBTI+ Youth

On Friday 25th June, as part of the Pride celebrations, the Department of Children, Disability, Equality, Integration and Youth will be live-streaming an online National celebration event: Live Out Loud: Celebrating LGBTI+ Youth from the National Opera House in Wexford.

The Minister for Children, Disability, Equality, Integration and Youth will show the valuable contribution of LGBTI+ young people to the nation, with a showcase of stories of LGBTI+ youth in culture, sport, youth clubs, schools and communities. Hosted by Stephen Byrne, with live music from the Pillow Queens, Live Out Loud will feature video contributions from LGBTI+ young people, and those who work with them.

The event will be streamed across social media, as part of Dublin Pride's Video on-Demand Platform and on the RTÉ culture page, and the event will continue to be available for viewing on the RTÉ player after the date.
